THE OKAZAKI KAHEITA INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION GUIDE TO APPLICATION FOR THE 2021 ACADEMIC YEAR

The Okazaki Kaheita International Scholarship Foundation was established in March 1990 to contribute to world peace and development by fostering people from the People's Republic of China and other countries in Asia. This foundation strives to promote mutual understanding and international exchange as well as to pay homage to and immortalize the spirit of Okazaki Kaheita, a man who worked for mutual understanding, peace, and world friendship.

In order to promote friendship between Japan and Asian countries and to further the personal development of people in these countries, the foundation provides scholarships to students from Asian countries who wish to study in graduate schools in Japan.

( ii ) The foundation shall bear school examination fees and all other related expenses.

(3) Outfit Allowance

-¥100,000 shall be paid as funds for initial expenses to begin living and studying in Japan.

-¥20,000 as part of the above amount shall be handed in the selected applicant' s own country when he/she receives the certificate of the scholarship. Part of this amount shall be paid in JPY in order to cover all correspondence fees with the foundation before coming to Japan. The remaining amount, on the other hand, will be paid when the selected applicant arrives in Japan.

THE OKAZAKI KAHEITA INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION
<2021Thailand>

(4) Travelling Expenses

- ( i ) ANA airline tickets shall be provided to the selected applicant for travelling to and from Japan, respectively to be used at the time of commencing studies and upon completion of our scholarship program.
- ( ii ) A round-trip ANA airline ticket shall also be provided to the selected applicant once during the second year of the scholarship period for home visit purposes to his/her country.

(5) Residence

As a general rule, the students will live in a dormitory provided by ANA or university dormitory. If it is inevitable to use a private apartment, the foundation will bear the cost of housing within the limit of ¥50,000 in Tokyo area and ¥40,000 in other districts

(6) Traffic Expenses for Commuting

The foundation shall bear the public traffic expenses for commuting between the residence designated by the foundation (ANA dormitory in principle) and the university (average sum of ¥200,000/year) .

(7) Others

( i ) Counseling

The foundation shall provide information and consultation services on matters related to living in Japan and on university examinations.

( ii ) Traveling in Japan

1st year: a trip to Okayama, local area in Japan

(Travel expenses, boarding and lodging expenses to be borne by the foundation)

2nd year : a trip to Kyoto and Nara

(Travel expenses, boarding and lodging expenses to be borne by the foundation)

a trip to Hokkaido

(Travel expenses, boarding and lodging expenses to be borne by the foundation)

The last year : Free travel after the completion of study in Japan

(An ANA domestic round-trip domestic airline ticket shall be provided to he selected applicant for travel to any one place in Japan (with supplementary travel expenses of a maximum of ¥100,000) .

( iii ) Medical Expenses

We require all the students to take out the mandatory National Health insurance.

The insurance will 70% of your medical expenses meaning that you will need to pay 30%. However, the student shall bear the premium expenses of the mandatory National Health Insurance, which is approximately ¥1,000 per month.

5. Qualifications for Application

Anyone who supports the objectives of the foundation to build his/her own country and to promote international friendship, is outstanding in personality and ability, in sound health and is deemed to be in need of financial assistance for educational expenses, and who meets the following qualifications:

- (1) Be a citizen of Thailand.
- (2) Be a resident of Thailand on April 1, 2020.
- (3) Be born after April 2, 1996.
- (4) Academic Qualifications:

Must have graduated from a university designated by our foundation prior to March 31, 2021 and be able to obtain a letter of recommendation from his/her supervising professor.

The applicants also required to have completed a total of 16 years of education at recognized educational facilities.

- (5) Major:

The field of study selected by the applicant must be the same as his/her major at the undergraduate level. Preferably, the applicant should have selected the University of his/her choice and the supervising professor under whom he/her wishes to pursue graduate studies.

The applicant's proposed research theme should be suitable for study at the graduate level in a Japanese university.

- (6) Language ability:

Must be able to understand graduate level lectures taught in Japanese or English. Selected applicants who have not yet learned Japanese are required to attend a Japanese language course at a language school for 6 months (approximately 500 hours) prior to coming to Japan.

Furthermore, the selected applicant shall be required to take the Japanese Language Proficiency Test held annually by the Japan Foundation.

- (7) Others:

The foundation deems it most suitable that the selected applicant come to Japan alone (without his/her family) to study under our program.

- (i) The student must live alone (without his/her family) for the first year in Japan.
- (ii) After one year it is possible for the selected student to live with his/her family if he/she wished to do so, but the foundation cannot give any assistance for his/her family.

Note: It is generally very hard for students from abroad to live and study in Japan with his/her family, as the student will meet many difficulties such as the high cost of living, housing problems and language difficulty.

6. Selection Procedures

The initial selection of scholarship applicants shall be based on submitted documents. These shall include documents verifying the achievements in research conducted by the applicant in the past, the proposed research theme, academic record at undergraduate level and a recommendation from the applicant's supervising professor.

Applicants selected on the basis of documentary selection shall, as a rule, be required to attend an interview, present a short thesis and take an academic competence examination. These shall be held in the applicant's own country. The selection committee shall consist of professors who are currently teaching at Japanese universities. The applicant shall have a choice of Japanese or English for interview purposes.

Applicants shall not be allowed to raise any objections against the result of the selection announced in documents by the foundation.

7. Application Procedures

The applicant must complete the official application form provided by our foundation and submit it along with all other specified documentation (please see below) . The form must be completed in accordance with the "Instructions for Filling in the Application Form."

Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Required documents:

- (1) School records
- (2) Graduation certificate (or Certificate of studentship)
- (3) Health certificate

A health certificate issued by a doctor clearly stating that the applicant is fit for an extended period of study abroad. The certificate should be written on the prescribed form and completed in English.

- (4) Recommendation from supervising professor stating the academic performance, personality and future prospects of the applicant
- (5) Recommendation from employer at place of employment
(Only for applicants currently employed)

Note: Submitted documents will not be returned.

8. Closing Date for Application

All applications must reach the Okazaki Kaheita International Scholarship Foundation no later than March 31, 2020. (Applications received after the closing date will not be accepted.)

9. Selection Schedule, Location and Notification of Results

- (1) Applicants will be informed of the results of the initial selection by April 10, 2020.
- (2) Second Selection will be held on May, 2020 in Bangkok.

Applicants will be informed of more details concerning the time and place of the selection

<2021Thailand>

by April 10, 2020.

(3) Results of selection will be informed at the latest by the end of May 2020.

10. Suspension or Cancellation of Scholarship

The scholarship will be suspended or cancelled if the selected applicant cannot continue his/her studies due to illness or other reasons; if his/her study record becomes unsatisfactory; if the supervising professor regards continued study as inappropriate; or if the selected applicant engages in any conduct regarded as dishonorable to the foundation.
